

Environmental Demolition Group has become recognized as one of the leading specialty contractors in the Midwest for Abatement and Interior/Selective Demolition for college and university upgrade and renovation projects. Look to EDG to help prepare your buildings for the next generation of College Students. Below are just a few of the Colleges and/or Universities that have called upon Environmental Demolition Group to prepare buildings for their most recent renovations. Contact EDG for your next project.

